The local ball team played the Desloge team Sunday afternoon, in National park, and were defeated by a score of 8 to 3. There is no disgrace in that score, however, for while Farmington found the Desloge team to be "easy" earlier in the season, that team has been strengthened until it has been defeating all comers. The Farmington team is still composed wholly of local players, and are whipping themselves in shape for real championship contests next season.

MRS. JOHN GARTON

News of the death of this splendid and lovable character, which was received here by her son, Guy, was most depressing to her many warm friends in this community. The final summons reached her at 1:25 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 15th, at her home in Los Angeles, Calif., where she moved nine years ago from this place.

Death resulted from a complication of diseases. Deceased was a life member of the Missionary Society of this city. She leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter, six grandchildren and a host of devoted friends to mourn their loss.

OFFICIALS NAMED FOR STATE INSTITUTIONS

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 11.—Six Republicans and six Democrats were elected to positions in the State eleemosynary institutions by the bipartisan State Eleemosynary Board at a meeting which closed here tonight, and contracts were made with two Democratic architects to design new buildings to be erected next spring at hospitals for the insane at Farmington and Fulton, and at the tuberculosis sanatorium at Mount Vernon.

Chairman Evans said that all of the acts of the board were unanimous and that the politics of no person whose name was before the board were considered.

The architectural contracts were made with H. H. Hohenfeldt of St. Louis, a former State Senator, who is to furnish the designs and supervise the work on new buildings to cost $90,500 at Farmington, and on additions to the extent of $130,000 at Mount Vernon. Gen. F. M. Bell will perform similar services in connection with the erection of $110,000 in buildings at Fulton.

Appointments made were as follows: State Hospital No. 1, Fulton—Superintendent, Dr. M. O. Biggs (Democrat); re-elected; steward, Joseph W. Elliott (Republican). No. 2, St. Joseph—Superintendent, Dr. Porter E. Williams (Democrat); re-elected; steward, Charles C. Graves (Democrat). No. 3, Nevada, passed for the present. No. 4, Farmington—Superintendent, Dr. E. E. Bruner, Carrollton, (Republican), to succeed Dr. J. L. Eaton (Democrat); steward, N. E. Bugg (Democrat); re-elected. Colony for the Feeble Minded at Marshall—Superintendent, Dr. M. H. Topping, Flat River (Republican), to succeed Dr. R. P. C. Wilson (Democrat); steward, H. F. Berry of Fredericktown (Republican), to succeed W. Armentrout (Democrat). Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Mount Vernon—Dr. J. W. Bruton of Springfield (Republican), elected by the old board since the change in administration, re-elected; steward, C. E. Silverwood (Republican), re-elected under same conditions.
